DR. NASH RESIGNS.

Will Surrender Pastorate of the Baptist Church
Sept. 1st.

HIS GOOD WORK HERE.

Resignation Accepted at the Regular Business Meeting
Wednesday Night.

At the regular business meeting of the Baptist church Wednesday night, Rev. Charles Harris Nash tendered his resignation as pastor, to take effect Sept. 1st.

DR. CHAS. HARRIS NASH, D. D.

In a letter to the church, read by Mr. W. T. Tandy, he stated that it had been his purpose for some time to enter another field of labor and that while he had not yet accepted another call, his name was under consideration elsewhere.

A number of speeches were made, all of the speakers expressing the kindest regards for Dr. Nash. At the conclusion of the discussion the resignation was accepted as tendered.

Dr. Nash is a Virginian and came here from the Bardstown church in June, 1890. His work here has been attended with a large degree of success. The membership of the church has been doubled in that time and the splendid new $40,000 church building erected and paid for largely through Dr. Nash's efforts.

The church is now entirely out of debt and is one of the strongest in the General Baptist Association. Dr. Nash returned a few days ago from a month's vacation spent at Norfolk, Va., and is now at Dawson conducting a revival service. It is presumed that he will return to-night and fill his pulpit to-morrow.

Loss of Fund.

The settlement of former Master Commissioner John W. Kelly, of Trigg County, is at last in the courts.

A. C. Burnett, Master Commissioner, Mrs. V. K. Blakeley and others have sued John W. Kelly and his sureties, the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., for $4,865.33 shortage in the settlement of Kelly last January.

The Record says:

"Mrs. V. K. Blakeley, who is chief plaintiff of this suit, is the daughter of L. Bryant, deceased, who lived in the eastern part of the county. At his death he left to his daughter, Mrs. V. K. Blakeley, wife of Mr. James D. Blakeley, of this county, along with some property, several thousand dollars in money during her life time, and at her death it was to go to her children, who are also plaintiffs in this suit and are as follows: Mrs. Maggie Backus, Mrs. Fannie Miller, Mrs. Bud Miller, Mrs. Bobbie Smith, and Miss Mollie Blakeley. This money was placed in the hands of the Master Commissioner, the interest of which was to go to Mrs. Blakeley during her lifetime and at her death the principal to be divided among her children.

Thos. P. Cook was elected Circuit Judge of this district, he appointed Mr. Kelly his Master Commissioner in this county, and this money, along with the other trust funds then in the hands of the Master Commissioner, were turned over to him. Mr. Kelly served as such Commissioner of the county for eight years, and at the last February term of Court Judge Cook appointed Circuit Clerk A. C. Burnett as Master Commissioner of the county to succeed Mr. Kelly.

"The plaintiffs in this suit claim that in Mr. Kelly's settlement with the Court he failed to turn over $4,865.33 of the money that was due the Blakeley estate, which is the amount for which they are now suing.

"This is one of the most important suits that has been filed in this county for many years, and much litigation is expected before it is finally settled. It will be watched with a Sunday.
